Narrative (1)

Senatore, Alessandro RC237098

09/12/2025

On September 11, 2025, I, MD Senatore, along with other deputies were dispatched to 100 Alvina Hagood Circle, Doko Manor, regarding a civil disturbance. Upon arrival at the scene, which is in Richland County, I spoke with the Mayor of Blythewood, who reported that a female, [REDACTED] the wife of a Blythewood employee [REDACTED] had entered the property without authorization and slipped a white envelope in the main office with nothing but a person a name ([REDACTED]) on it and tried to leave.

The Blythewood Mayor and other officials asked her to pick it up and then leave the area. [REDACTED] refused to pick up the envelope, saying that they want them to have it, which was found out later to contain a check supposedly by [REDACTED], and while being confronted she stated to have medical episode. While on scene, [REDACTED] husband called in stating that his wife was being held hostage by the Mayor, which was found to be untrue.

[REDACTED] having a medical episode, prompted a call for service by CFD and RCEMS with CFD arrived on the scene first to stabilize [REDACTED]. While CFD was working on [REDACTED], the enclosed envelope was collected, after [REDACTED] accept to take back the envelope [REDACTED] Deputies were informed by the officials of Blythewood that wanted to put [REDACTED] on Trespass from the property. [REDACTED]

EMS arrived on scene and transported [REDACTED] to the ambulance. She was formally trespassed from the property and left with EMS for evaluation and medical treatment. This report is for the trespass notice that was issued. A case card was also issued.
